Ignore hobgoblins like this and similar. It means that a file or page in/on my website will open. It does NOT mean that you will have a flat tire on your car or that you will have to call a plumber because your toilet will be stopped up. For an explanation of cyber nonsense like this, See this: <http://geriatricgourmet.com/files/Future vs. Now Oct 2017.pdf>

And so another Memorial Day is closing and I for one really do remember! Not only my ancestors – farmer/soldiers going back to our War of Independence from the British Empire, but all those who gave “The last Full Measure of Devotion” and some kids, like me at the time, that I knew, who came back from (That butthole idiot waste of lives and treasure ---like the seventeen years in Afghanistan that only China can win)

Viet Nam, in boxes with flags draped over them.....or some missing arms and legs.

God dammed politicians!

I got lucky and was spared Viet Nam by my drinking buddy squadron clerks.....thanks to my father.

AND, big AND, good or bad wars, I understand intensely why the kids, devoted to a sense of duty and gratitude, volunteer and go blindly off to fight them and too often come back in the body bags. And here at home, the police.

And if for no other reason, this one will do:
